Obadyah Alliance Mechinah Program

Boys' Preparatory Program rooted in Maimonides and the Wisdom of Sephardic Masters

Build Identity

Build a strong spiritual and cultural identity rooted in classical Sephardic Jewish philosophy.

Hollistic Approach

Inspire holistic and rational thinking, integrating Torah, ethics, and science.

Grow in Character

Cultivate character and life skills, based on timeless teachings of Sephardic sages.

Prepare for Life

Prepare for adulthood with tools for military service, higher education, and meaningful living

Who is this program for?

This program is ideal for:

✓ Young men aged 17–20 seeking a year of growth before army, university, or yeshiva

✓ Students with interest in Jewish heritage, philosophy, and identity

✓ Those drawn to structure, depth, and the unique wisdom of the Sephardic world

Expected Outcomes

You walk away with:

- A deep connection to Sephardic intellectual and spiritual heritage
- A grounded worldview combining faith, ethics, and reason
- Tools for self-mastery, leadership, and resilience
- Readiness to face modern challenges without compromising tradition

Launch Into The Future.

Your son deserves more than a generic gap year.

He deserves a year that will ignite his mind, ground his identity, and guide his path forward—all within a rich, nurturing Sephardic framework.

This isn't just about preparing for what's next, but about becoming the kind of man who walks into adulthood with clarity, purpose, and pride in who he is.
